Fighting the enemy

Scriptures that will be referenced today:

*Proverbs 31:8-9 * Isaiah 1:17 * Micah 6:8*

*1 Corinthians 7:17 * Philippians 3:12-14*

*Luke 9:62 * Mark 16:15 * Proverbs 28:1*

Take a moment today to say hello to someone else today. We are community and as such need to know one another.

We have been given permission to park in the west lot, they keep the snow off and salt when necessary. But. We park there at our own risk, so please BE CAREFUL when you walk.

Rock climbing can be an immensely difficult undertaking. It requires determination and a lot of patience. It has a high casualty rate for those who are unprepared, ill equipped or go unaided.

During our lifetime, there will be stages when things go bad. It may happen because of our own stupid mistakes or simply be the unfair result of life in the devil's world. Adversity can rise like an impassable wall and if we wish to move forward, we must climb. Overcoming adversity is no easy task, particularly if we go it alone and start ascending without aid or support - one slip (into depression) can be fatal. God never likes to see us fall - He wants us to rise above adversity. For each of us He has given an unbreakable line of support (His promises), which we should attach to our harness (faith). However, if we are without faith, God's promises will be of little help. Climbing adversity can be a slow tedious journey.
We often tire and think we won't make it. For this reason we must continuously lock in our line of support (remember to claim God's promises daily), then if we slip (get depressed) our fall will not be far. Eventually, with much perseverance, we will rise above adversity and be a much stronger Christian for the climb.
