Closing prayer and blessing

•We quite often curse the rain for the inconvenience it may cause us. Yet, without that rain we would surely die.

•Many circumstances may arise in life that impedes us from reaching our objectives. As frustrating as these situations may be, we must remember God is in control of all circumstances and His grace abounds. If He has allowed rain to fall on our parade, there is a divine reason. But often we can doubt God's good intentions even to the point where we curse Him.

Do we trust in God? When we get frustrated that things aren't working as we planned, it is a sign we have lost focus on God and His plan.

King David penned many of his songs of praise when he was being hunted in the wilderness. 'Oh, give thanks to the Lord, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever.' (Psalm 107:1)

Job, under extreme adversity proclaimed: 'Though He slay me, yet will I trust Him.' (Job 13:15).

It's easy to praise God when things are going our way, but people really take note when we still praise God as things are falling apart around us.

We must remember in whatever circumstances we find ourselves, God's grace always rains down upon us. Maybe it's time that we put down our umbrellas and started singing in the rain.

And we know that all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are the called according to His purpose. Romans 8:28
