~~~

November 23rd at 10 am HSCC will have a Thanksgiving service and celebrate our 20th year. Its usually less than an hour, bring friends, family to give thanks to the Lord.

~~

We are going into a season where everyone is expected to be happy. This is not always the case. I encourage all of you to reach out to friends and family.

A call, a card even a text could make someone's day.

Remember, everyone is going through something, try to be the Aaron in their life.
