2 Corinthians

Pastor Charlie

The weather has been a bit chilly the last few days. We survived.

Every body was telling each other to stay warm. Would there be a reason you didn't want to stay warm?

Its much like people telling you have a good one.

What one are they talking about and if I have it wouldn't I want it to be good?

We say some really strange things to one another, most of it is just out of habits.

Words matter. What we say to one another shouldn't just be meaningless words. Why bother if they really don't mean anything.

Pick your words. Try to make people smile.

Instead of saying have a good one or stay warm what if you said something like, I pray you have the best day ever and God's blessings are with you. If we say it to each other we'll smile. What would happen if you said that to the gas station cashier? Or the kid at the fast food restaurant? Might be worth a try.

Go out today and make it the best day ever! I'll assume you'll want to stay warm. ☺

We have been given permission to park in the west lot, they keep the snow off and salt when necessary. But. We park there at our own risk, so please BE CAREFUL when you walk.

The Church is going through a big spring cleaning right now. We aren't waiting for spring. If you drop it, spill it or leave some crumbs, please be kind and clean it up.

Do not forget, if you haven't gotten your T Shirt from putting your size on the Board, see Corrie.
