A time to share our praises and prayer requests

Offering as a form of worship

Each one must give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

Today's message:

Called by God

Jeremiah 17:5-8

Greet someone that you haven't got to know yet and make a new friend.
We are community and as such need to know one another.

We have been given permission to park in the west lot, they keep the snow off and salt when necessary. But. We park there at our own risk, so please BE CAREFUL when you walk.

•Children love toys and playing childish games. As they grow into adulthood it is natural for them to put aside childish things. As parents, we shouldn't demand they instantly grow up. If we take away their toys before they are ready to give them up of their own accord, we can unwittingly do more harm than good.

•Just as a child does childish things, so do new believers do spiritually immature things. However, in the spiritual-life we are sometimes guilty of demanding that new believers 'give up this' and 'stop doing that' in order to be instantly more mature. Sadly, Christian legalism has stopped many people from knowing our Lord Jesus Christ.

We should show more parental tolerance and allow people to grow spiritually in their own time (John 16:12). We shouldn't concentrate on the childish things they are doing, but lead through example and extend grace for them to grow under God's guidance in God's time. As they become spiritually-mature they will automatically give up their childish things - not for the wrong reasons of guilt, pressure or bullying, but because God has revealed something much, much better.

When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. 1 Corinthians 13:11.
