There was a man with neither hope nor vision,
Who knew he had to make a big decision;
The issue that was deep and all embracing,
Concerned the awesome future he was facing;
The Spirit of the Lord had brought conviction,
That judgment was an absolute prediction.
The Bible has a message in its pages,
That has not changed in essence through the ages;
The offering for Abel and his brother,
Was based upon the promise of Another;
If we will put our trust in God's Anointed,
Our faith will never leave us disappointed.
The message is both simple and far reaching;
But never is it found in mortal teaching;
It goes against our natural reaction;
Yet nothing else can bring us satisfaction;
It covers all the needs of our redemption,
And there is no exclusion or exemption.
For some it has come early in their hearing;
As parents taught the children they were rearing;
For others it occurred in adolescence,
When they had taken in their Bible lessons;
For people who believed when they were older,
The challenge of the truth was never bolder.
It is a life that carries on forever;
A pilgrimage of love that none can sever;
A life that's not dependant on our keeping;
And does not slip away if we are sleeping;
The promise of the Saviour should awake us,
That He will never leave us nor forsake us.
The gospel is for you while you are reading;
Remember that your time is fast receding!
You cannot trust that you will see tomorrow;
Today could be your happiness or sorrow;
The message may not bear its glad repeating,
If you reject what Christ is now entreating.
